

A RELENTLESS PURSUIT

WEEKLY ACTION STEP

Pastor Steve talks about how “Someday” has become our favorite day of the week, but “Someday” often never comes. Write out what you need to do for your relentless pursuit to outlive you.

QUESTIONS

1. Matthew 7:24-27 instructs us to build our house on rock, not sand. At what time in your life did you realize that you were building on a shaky foundation and needed to rebuild on the rock-like foundation of Christ?
2. Pastor Steve reminds us that God made all of us with unique gifts, characteristics, and interests. When we pay special attention to what makes our loved ones unique, how does that demonstrate God’s love in their lives? What’s keeping you from telling someone how special they are in God’s eyes and in your eyes?
3. Have you identified a pattern or habit in your life that you need to become relentless about eliminating or relentless about building? When we are commanded by God to be strong and courageous (Joshua 1:8-9), where do you need His strength to make changes?
4. How are you being relentless in your pursuit and love of God? What stops you from being relentless in joy and in the fullness of life that God has given you?
5. Read Galatians 5:22-23. Which of the Fruits of the Spirit do you exhibit regularly? Which do you need to really work on?
6. Read Proverbs 22:6 and 3 John 1:4. Have you found the Proverbs passage to be true in your life? Do you have children (biological or spiritual) walking in the truth? What have you done to ensure that happens?
