

Seeking God in Day-to-Day Decisions

Questions

1. What illustration, story or scripture had the greatest impact on you this week?
2. Pastor Ron points out that busyness isn't solved by doing less but by seeking Him more. Why do you suppose that cutting out activities alone won't improve your state of mind?
3. Read Ephesians 5:17. How can you avoid and improve upon acting thoughtlessly in your day-to-day life?
4. Read Romans 12:2. What's one way you copy the behavior and customs of the world right now, and one way you can make a change?
5. In the four aspects of decision making that Pastor Ron mentions (see Takeaways), which step would help you make more Godly choices?
6. In Matthew 6:33 we are reminded to seek God's kingdom above all else. How are you seeking God's kingdom in your daily life?
7. As you continue to seek God's will for your life, follow Pastor Ron's suggestion of looking up scriptures talking about God's will. (Hint: you can find several passages under "God's Will" in the back of your Life Application Study Bible – or any Bible you have with notes or a concordance in the back of it!) Add some of them to your group's text messages this week as you pray for the Spirit to reveal God's will in each other's lives!

Scripture References

Read Ephesians 5:15, 17; Matthew 6:33-34; Romans 12:1-2

Takeaways

- The solution to busyness may not have as much to do with doing less as with seeking Him more
- Help in Making Decisions:
 - Go to God's Word
 - Talk and Listen to the Holy Spirit
 - Give Careful Thought & Time to Your Decisions
 - Get Godly Counsel (from a neutral friend)

Weekly Action Step

Find one thing on your calendar this week that you can say "no" to and instead replace with seeking God more.
