

Made for More

Questions

1. What illustration, story or scripture had the greatest impact on you this week?
2. Our guest speaker Chad encouraged us to allow Jesus to step into the details of our lives. What, if anything, keeps you from inviting Jesus in to experience the small details of your life? How does it make you feel that Jesus cares about the small details of your life?
3. Read Luke 5:4. What would you consider to be the deep waters of your faith? What areas require you to lean on Jesus more than you would otherwise?
4. What other voices divert you from primarily listening to God's voice? What tools or resources can help you practice listening to God's voice? Who in your life demonstrates listening to God's voice?
5. Chad says it often feels safer to keep our dreams in our pocket. What dreams have (are) you keeping in your pocket? Read Philippians 3:12-4:1. What can you take from Paul's life to encourage you to reignite those dreams?
6. Maybe you find yourself like Peter, feeling as though you have failed Jesus. Read John 21:15-18. Jesus gives Peter 3 opportunities to reconfirm his love, and charges him to feed His sheep. What action steps can you do today to start again feeding His sheep?

Scripture References

Read Philippians 3:12; Luke 5:3-11

Takeaways

- Even when challenges seem insurmountable, believe that you are made for more.
- Invite Jesus into the details of your life.
- Respond to God's voice above all others.
- Courageously follow after Jesus.