

WEEK 2: Don't You Want Somebody to Love?

INTRODUCTION & OPENING QUESTION

We live in a world that is continuously seeking to redefine what true love is. Throughout Summer of Love II, we are going to explore the Biblical view of love. We will learn that a proper understanding of God's love changes everything. We will see how this affects our marriages, families, and relationships as a whole.

Share your best (or worst) interview story. How did it go? When you interview how do you present yourself?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Instructions for the group meeting: Read each question out loud and give ample time for discussion. Then read through any Bible references for additional discussion and context. Close out the evening in prayer.

All Questions Based on 1 Samuel 25:2-39

Optional: Read Passage out-loud to start.

- 1) As you reflect on your best romantic relationships or friendships, what characteristics stand out to you most about those people?
- 2) When you evaluate your "inner circle" of relationships, do you have any people like Abigail or Nabal in it?
- 3) Which of the character green lights or red lights do you honestly see in yourself?
 - Peacemaker | Pleasant | Beautiful Inside | Takes Responsibility | Embraces Truth
 - Troublemaker | Shamelessly Difficult | Ugly Inside | Avoids Blame | Can't Be Reasoned With
- 4) There are four types of people Jonathan references. Which one do you think describes you right now? What is a step of growth you need to take this week?
 - Right & Stubborn | Right & Humble (Abigail) | Wrong & Humble | Wrong & Stubborn (Nabal)

TAKEAWAYS

Reflection & Action Steps

- Read, pray, & reflect on 1 Samuel 25:2-39.
- What is one thing you can do this week to better orient your life around God?
- What is one relationship you need to address/work on/or move on from this week? Create an action plan for taking the necessary steps in that relationship.
