

WEEK # 4: FLIP THE SCRIPT

INTRODUCTION

Everybody has a secret life. There is a gap between the person we want to be and the person that we are. It could be because of things we do wrong, or others have done to us. God's will for all of us is for us to be completely authentic and free to be who we really are. In this series, we'll look at God's word and discover how to be free from that secret life that keeps threatening us all the time and how to be the people that God has designed us to be.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What was your biggest takeaway from the message, and why?
2. When we think about "a secret place" we tend to associate it with shame. But, what if our secret place was a place that led to success, serenity, and strength? Have you ever thought about "a secret place," from a positive perspective?
3. What is your secret time and place with God? If you don't have one, what can you do differently in your daily rhythm to create one?
4. Read Psalm 91. What stands out the most to you in this Psalm?
5. Pastor Mark talked about God's 8 "I wills" listed in Psalm 91. Eight "I wills" promised to those who dwell in the secret place. Which "I will" resonates the most with you right now in your current season of life?
 - Because he/she loves me, I will rescue him/her.
 - He/she will call upon me, and I will answer him/her.
 - I will be with him/her in trouble.
 - I will deliver him/her.
 - I will honor him/her.
 - I will satisfy him/her with long life.
 - I will show him/her salvation.
