

"The following is a direct script of a teaching that is intended to be presented via video, incorporating relevant text, slides, media, and graphics to assist in illustration, thus facilitating the presentation of the material. In some places, this may cause the written material to not flow or sound rather awkward in some places. In addition, there may be grammatical errors that are often not acceptable in literary work. We encourage the viewing of the video teachings to complement the written teaching you see below."

The Change in the Unchangeable

If Jesus, His Hebrew name Yeshua, is the Word of God and we are also told that Yeshua is the same today, yesterday and forever, then how can we say that the Word of God actually changed instead of being the same yesterday, today and forever? Either Yeshua is the Word of God, or He isn't. And He can't change or can He?

Is not chapters such as Leviticus 11 and Leviticus 23 part of the Word of God? Does your theology say such chapters have changed? If you say that such chapters are only for the Jews, then what do you do with the fact that Moses wrote that the Law of God is for everyone who believes on God?

Numbers 15:16; 29

¹⁶ One law and one rule shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourns with you. ²⁹ You shall have one law for him who does anything unintentionally, for him who is native among the people of Israel, and for the stranger who sojourns among them.

Exodus 12:49

There shall be one law for the native and for the stranger who sojourns among you.

So, now we have a Word of God that does not change. And that the Word of God is to be for all Believers. Seems to be a pickle for some. Just a thought.

For more on this and other teachings, please visit us at www.testeverything.net

Shalom, and may Yahweh bless you in walking in the whole Word of God.

EMAIL: Info@119ministries.com

FACEBOOK: www.facebook.com/119Ministries

WEBSITE: www.TestEverthing.net & www.ExaminaloTodo.net

TWITTER: www.twitter.com/119Ministries#