Themes:

1. God Himself is the theme. He does all things for His own glory.
2. God's people find strength only as they rest in the promises of their God.
3. God's people find refreshment only as they delight in His word.
4. God is offended by religious practices that come from an empty heart.

5. God's people will someday become an eternal community of worshippers.
6. God opposes human pride.
7. The foolish idols man creates are destined for destruction.
8. God's judgement will reduce Israel to a remnant. From this remnant, He will raise up a holy people.

9. God sometimes judges people by making them deaf and blind to His saving word.

10. The only hope for the world is one man.

A. He is the promised Davidic King.

B. He is the suffering servant and saving substitute.

C. He is the anointed preacher of the Gospel.

D. He is the victor over all evil.

11. God uses everything, even human sin, for His own glory.

12. All people are called to repent of sin and trust in God alone.

13. God is guiding all of human history.

14. The wrath of God is to be feared above all else.
