

SERMON APPLICATION GUIDE

TO THE WOMEN IN THE HOUSEHOLD | 1 Timothy 2:9-15

WORSHIP

How can your discipleship group start with worship today?

WALK

Spend time understanding and applying God's Word.

1. REVIEW + UNDERSTAND

Take a moment to commit the discussion time to prayer. Seek to faithfully apply truths from scripture and not culture, while being charitable and loving in any areas of disagreement.

Read 1 Timothy 2:9-10. The word "likewise" brings a connection between what follows to what came before. How are these connected? What are the instructions given?

Read 1 Timothy 2:11-15. Paul is prohibiting something in the household of God. What is he instructing? What is he not prohibiting? How is this applied in our local church?

If the braiding of hair and all that was cultural, how do we know that the prohibition wasn't just a cultural thing as well?

What do we do when we disagree on things? How can we dialogue in a healthy way?

2. ASSESS + APPLY

OPEN QUESTION:

Let us challenge one another.
How can we live this out more fully?

APPLICATIONAL QUESTIONS:

- 1) What does it look like in our day to adorn myself in respectable apparel?
- 2) Where do I look to guide my heart around the topics of modesty and moderation?
- 3) What does it look like to be adorned with what is proper for women who profess godliness?
- 4) What does the state of my wardrobe possibly say about the state of my heart?

It can be easier to focus on the prohibition (either in deference or frustration), but let us take the counter. Are you leveraging the fullness of your gifting and maturity for the building up of the household of God - your local church?

As you heard and read the Word, where did the Holy Spirit bring convictions. What would obedience look like to that conviction?
