

MOUNTAINS, VALLEYS and CAVES

sermon series

Sunday, March 6, 2022

Jesus was a contrarian. He was not grumpy, but He saw things differently than the unrighteous Gentiles and the selfrighteous Pharisees. The Mount of the Beatitudes shows how He flipped the blessing upside down. Blessing wasn't about grabbing, but about giving. His teachings were contrary to the way of the world. "Don't be like them" (Matthew 6:8). "Them" refers both to the Gentiles and the Pharisees. Seek the righteousness of Christ.

A Special All-Church Meeting 5:30 pm, TODAY, Sanctuary

Asbury will hold a special all-church meeting to discuss our future. Child care will be provided for children in 5th grade and below. Our governance committee leaders and Pastor Tom will share important information. We strongly encourage you to attend.

APPLICATION:

Our theme for the rest of the week is about blessing. Lent is an excellent time to not only receive God's blessings and to live it out, but to extend it to others. We said on Ash Wednesday: As we prepare for Lent, we apply the three means of grace Wesley used for the Methodists: Avail yourself of the means of grace (worship, prayer, Bible study, fellowship), do good (lots of opportunity here), and avoid harm. What are your plans for a holy Lent? Will you pray and read your Bible daily, come to worship weekly? Who could you invite to be in a Lenten small group? What is something new you can start? What should you give up?
